4.0 POLICY:

- 4.1 Employees and agents of CCMB, when authorized to disclose, are only permitted to disclose the minimum amount of information required as authorized by PHIA.
- 4.2 Employees and agents of CCMB should only Use the minimum amount of information necessary to do their job.
- 4.3 CCMB will take reasonable steps to inform Individuals of their right to make a request to examine (view) and receive a copy of their Personal Health Information and how they can exercise that right.
- 4.4 Employees and persons associated with CCMB will not Access their own Personal Health Information, or the health information of family or friends, except in accordance with CCMB's established policies and procedures, unless required as part of their job responsibilities and duties. Using employee Access for personal reasons is a breach of this policy and may also be a breach of CCMB Policy 01.001 Conflict of Interest.
- 4.5 CCMB will make every reasonable effort to assist an Individual making a request and to respond without delay, openly, accurately, and completely.
- When responding to a request for Information About Care Currently Being Provided, a member of the Health Care team or designate will make the Personal Health Information available for examination and if requested, a copy of the information must be provided to the requestor within 72 hours after receiving the request.
- 4.7 When a request is for information about care not currently being provided to an Individual, the written request must be made to the CCMB Medicolegal Correspondent. CCMB shall respond to written requests for information as promptly as possible, but no later than 30 days.

Title: Access to Personal Health Information Policy No.: 06.007

- 4.8 CCMB will ensure that an inability to make a request in writing does not limit Access to Personal Health Information. Another person designated by the Individual or CCMB may assist the Individual with the written request.
- 4.9 CCMB has the right to charge a fee for examination and/or providing a copy of Personal Health Information requested by the Individual. The Individual must be informed of any charges associated with the request as set out in the WRHA fee schedule which has been adopted by CCMB.
- 4.10 CCMB may refuse Access to all portions of Recorded Personal Health Information in accordance with PHIA if:
 - a. Knowledge of the information could reasonably be expected to endanger the mental or physical health or the safety of the Individual or another person.
 - b. Disclosure of the information would reveal Personal Health Information about another person who has not consented to the Disclosure.
 - c. Disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to identify a third party, other than CCMB, who supplied the information in confidence under circumstances in which Confidentiality was reasonably expected.
 - d. The information was compiled and is used solely for:
 - the purpose of peer review by Health Professionals;
 - the purpose of review by a standards committee established to study or evaluate Health Care practice in a Health Care Facility or Health Services Agency;
 - the purpose of a body with statutory responsibility for the discipline of Health Professionals or for the quality or standards of professional services provided by Health Professionals; or
 - the purpose of risk management assessment
 - e. The information was compiled principally in anticipation of, or for Use in, a civil, criminal or quasi-judicial proceeding.
 - f. The Individual fails to provide sufficient proof that they are the person the Personal Health Information is about or a Person Permitted to Exercise the Rights of an Individual.
- 4.11 CCMB may disregard a request if CCMB reasonably believes that:
 - a. the request is for information already provided to the Individual who made the request; or
 - b. the request amounts to an abuse of the right to make a request because it is unduly repetitive or systematic, or otherwise made in bad faith.

If CCMB disregards a request under this section, CCMB will notify the Individual in writing of the decision and the reasons for it, and of the Individual's right to make a Complaint about CCMB's decision. Refusals under this section should be approved by the CCMB Privacy Officer.

4.12 CCMB will inform the Individual in writing when Access is refused, as promptly as possible but no later than 72 hours for care currently being provided or 30 days for all other requests.

4.13 CCMB will refer the Individual to their direct care provider in order to provide an explanation about any term, code or abbreviation used in the Personal Health Information, if requested. The explanation must be provided as promptly as possible, but no later than 30 days of receiving the request.

5.0 PROCEDURE:

- 5.1 When responding to an Individual's request to examine and/or receive a copy of Information About Care Currently Being Provided, a member of the Health Care team or Medicolegal Correspondent or designate shall:
 - 5.1.1 Determine what Personal Health Information the Individual would like to examine or receive a copy of.
 - 5.1.2 Obtain the request in writing or where necessary, assist the Individual with completing the CCMB Request to Access Personal Health Information form (found at J:\Privacy\Consents or https://www.cancercare.mb.ca/Patient-Family/personal-health-information). CCMB may accept a verbal request from Individuals for Information About Care Currently Being Provided.
 - 5.1.3 Ensure that the Person Permitted to Exercise the Rights of the Individual has the appropriate authority to do so and can provide verification of their identity.
 - 5.1.4 Advise the person who fails to provide sufficient proof that they are a Person Permitted to Exercise the Rights of an Individual that their request will be reconsidered upon provision of the appropriate identification or authorization.
 - 5.1.5 Review the Record to determine if there is any reason to refuse Access to the Personal Health Information. If Access is refused in whole or part:
 - Inform the Individual in writing as promptly as possible, but no later than 72 hours that the request for Access to Personal Health Information is being refused, and cite the specific reason for refusal as set out in policy statement 4.10.
 - In the case of partial refusal, remove (sever) the identified portion of the Personal Health Information that cannot be examined or copied. Indicate by a separate written notation that Personal Health Information is missing, and cite the specific reason for refusal as set out in policy statement 4.10.
 - Advise the Individual of their right to make a Complaint about the refusal to the Provincial Ombudsman.
 - Permit the Individual to examine or receive a copy of the remainder of the information.
 - 5.1.6 Arrange a time within 72 hours to be present with the Individual to examine their Personal Health Information and/or provide a copy, if requested.

- 5.1.7 There is no legal obligation to provide an explanation about any term, code or abbreviation used in the Personal Health Information within the 72-hour time frame. Every effort should be made to provide an explanation as soon as reasonably possible, but no later than 30 days.
- 5.1.8 Retain a copy of the Individual's written request and the response or document in the Electronic Client Record that the Personal Health Information was examined and/or a copy was provided to the Individual.
- 5.1.9 Inform the Individual of any cost that may be associated with the request to examine and/or receive a copy of the Personal Health Information. Any cost must be in accordance with the WRHA fee schedule, adopted at CCMB.
 - Where the fee estimate represents an unreasonable barrier to Access to Personal Health Information for the requestor, CCMB may waive the fee.
- 5.1.10 Confirm in writing with the Individual how a copy of the Personal Health Information, if requested, will be made available to them.
- 5.2 All Other Access Requests When responding to an Individual's request to examine and/or receive a copy of Personal Health Information other than Information About Care Currently Being Provided, the Medicolegal Correspondent will:
 - 5.2.1 Determine what Personal Health Information the Individual would like to examine or receive a copy of.
 - 5.2.2 Obtain the request in writing or where necessary, assist the Individual with completing the CCMB Request to Access Personal Health Information form.
 - 5.2.3 Ensure the Person Permitted to Exercise the Rights of an Individual, has the appropriate authority to do so and can provide verification of their identity.
 - 5.2.4 Advise the person who fails to provide sufficient proof that they are a Person Permitted to Exercise the Rights of an Individual that their request will be reconsidered upon provision of the appropriate identification or authorization.
 - 5.2.5 Inform the Individual of any cost that may be associated with the request to examine and/or receive a copy of the Personal Health Information. Any costs must be in accordance with the WRHA fee schedule, adopted at CCMB.
 - Where the fee estimate represents an unreasonable barrier to Access to Personal Health Information for the requestor, CCMB may waive the fee.

- 5.2.6 Review the Record to determine if there is any reason to refuse Access to the Personal Health Information. If Access is refused in whole or part:
 - Inform the Individual in writing as promptly as possible, but no later than 30 days that the request for Access to Personal Health Information is being refused, and cite the specific reason for refusal as set out in policy statement 4.10.
 - In the case of partial refusal, remove (sever) the identified portion of the Personal Health Information that cannot be examined or copied, and cite the specific reason for refusal as set out in policy statement 4.10.
 - Inform the Individual in writing if the requested Personal Health Information does not exist or cannot be found.
 - Advise the Individual of their right to make a Complaint about the refusal to the Provincial Ombudsman.
 - Permit the Individual to examine or receive a copy of the remainder of the information.
- 5.2.7 Arrange a time to be present with the Individual to examine their Personal Health Information and/or provide a copy if requested, as promptly as possible but no later than 30 days.
- 5.2.8 Refer to the direct care provider in order to provide an explanation about any term, code, or abbreviation used in the Personal Health Information if requested within 30 days.
- 5.2.9 Retain a copy of the written request and the response in the Electronic Client Record that the Personal Health Information was examined and/or copy was provided to the Individual.
- 5.2.10 Confirm in writing with the Individual how a copy of the Personal Health Information, if requested, will be made available to them.
- 5.3 Information related to psychological tests and data
 - 5.3.1 CCMB is not required to provide a copy of information related to psychological tests or data if both of the following conditions are met:
 - The information concerns:
 - Procedure or techniques relating to psychological tests or assessments.
 - o Details of psychological tests or assessments, or
 - Raw data from a psychological test or assessment;
 - The provision of a copy of the information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the use or results of particular psychological tests or assessments.
 - 5.3.2 When making Personal Health Information related to a psychological test or data available for examination, CCMB may require a Health Professional to be present to provide an explanation of the information.
